Class of 2019 Yearbook Dedication

Mr. Finley

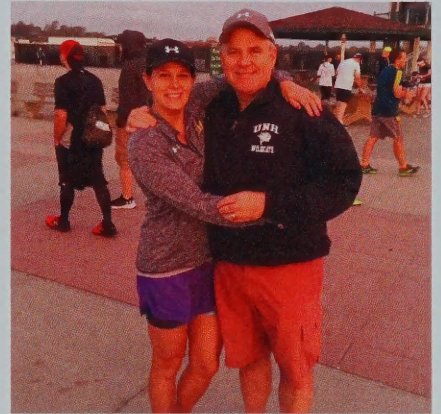

This year, one of the dedicatees our class chose is someone who has helped us to reach our fullest potential by truly allowing us to be ourselves. Some of us were lucky enough to have him as our power block teacher since freshman year, where the advice and interest he had in our daily lives was constant. This teacher has brightened the lives of just about every student in the senior class - even those who never took art. From the honest and thoughtful advice he gives, to the mac and cheese and cups of tea, to the freedom of expression he has allowed us, we have all witnessed his devotion to making WBMSHS a wonderful place to be. Through his friendly nature, bright sense of humor, and genuine connections with us, he has impacted each of us in a way we will treasure forever. The Class of 2019 is proud to dedicate their yearbook to Mr. Justin Finley!

Class of 2019 Yearbook Dedication

Mrs. MacMillan

No matter what type of day we may be having, this person is always there to greet us with a warm smile - which makes all the difference. Since our days at the Howard, she has been someone who radiates kindness. Her hard work organizing attendance, announcements, and making every day run as smoothly as possible does not go unnoticed. No matter how well she knows a person, she treats us with a genuine respect and pleasant attitude. Whether it be remembering all of our names or asking how your family is doing, her kind authenticity is undeniable. Throughout her many years with us, she has taught the senior class what it means to be a good person, what it means to be kind, what it means to be genuine. As we move forward, we have been shaped into better people because of her. The Class of 2019 is also elated to dedicate their yearbook to Mrs. Joanne MacMillan!

For me High School was not the greatest experience of my life, nor will I look back and think of it as the greatest. However, I will say that being here has changed my life for the better. The people I have met have become some of my best friends, Nolan Foy, Aiden Destrampe, Jacob Cobb, and Morgan Mitcheson have all changed my life for the better. As well as them, the biggest inspirations of my life are my bullmastiff Zeus and my Papa Paul. Real quick, I really appreciate my friends and those around me for getting me out of my comfort zone this year, it really has helped me become a happier person. Congrats to the class of 2019! Much Love!

"There is no dark side nor a light side, there is only the force."

I am a simple man from a simple background, however, my uniqueness comes from my special set of skills acquired from my passions and hobbies. Some of these skills include the ability to play the sport of Golf, the ability to play the guitar as well. Music is a large passion of mine and I will continue to follow it as far as I can go. A noble Jedi Master at heart, but a powerful Sith Lord in mind. I give myself to the teachings to mentors who have taught valuable lessons required for later in life.

Lucas Nunes da Silva

I was born in Brazil and lived most of my life there. I moved to the United States in September of 2017. I came to live with my father. We moved to WB in the summer of 2018 and when started studying here I made friends quickly. Every day I am learning something different about English, culture, etc. I like WB because most of the people are friendly here.

From Little Shop of Horrors to Mary Poppins, from my first pep rally to my last, from my first year of camp to my last year, from the friendships I made to the friendships I have yet to make, from dancing in the middle of CVS to laughing uncontrollably in the middle of IHOP, from the friendships that didn't last to the friendships that will last forever, from the first time we used FaceTime to the endless amounts of group chats, for every moment that ever mattered to me, I will forever be grateful.

I would like to thank my parents for getting me this far. They have supported me through everything, have come to all of my football games, my track meets, and helped me through anything I've asked them to. I couldn't have got here without them. It has been a long ride with my friends; I remember after football practice I would go out and kick and whether they were on the sidelines, or driving by honking their horns, they were always supporting me. I will always remember all the stupid stuff we've done and most importantly what you've done for me LN, JD, JG, NM, NR, DD, CR, AL, BS, RL, JP, LM, MJ, and CC.

Hard work pays off. What I will miss the most about WB by far is my teammates, especially the Big Uglies, you made my high school experience worthwhile. The pasta dinners, the conditioning, the hitting drills, all of you reading this. Thanks. Without you, our first playoff game won in 7 seasons wouldn't have happened. We made history. High school has been a trip, lots of ups and downs. Everyone tells you that "senior year is the year chief." And they were right, I have some of the best friends around this year. Some of those friends include Drew C., Aiden D., Morgan M, Laura O., Emily O., and Sam L. All people that have made a impact on my life. As for me there isn't much to say, I'm a horror movie fanatic who finds the dumbest stuff funny and enjoys being with his friends. Overall I think people should just go out and make something of their life, life is short and we should all enjoy it the best we can.
Good luck class of 2019.

I have been a honors student participating in activities such as track, baseball, and NHS. Outside of school I have developed leadership skills in becoming an Eagle Scout. High school has given me a lot, most importantly memories. We all remember Greenlaw's endless facts on the Blizzard of '78. Or Pope's corpse incident with WB's finest. How about the time Mr. Rosow shaved Mr. Cray's head during the morning announcements. I would like to thank my parents as well as the teachers who've had an impact on me and the school. As we move on from High School just remember how Mr. McMurray feels about triangles.

The only person holding you back from achieving your goals is you. You can place blame on your teachers, your mentors, your friends, but you control what you do and where you go. Some people may try to hold you back but if you want it bad enough, you can fly past them. My message to my fellow classmates is to want your dreams bad enough, have control of your own life, and do not let anyone stop you from succeeding. Shoutout to my gurls HR, EW, MO, RN, and GG. I can't believe high school is already over, I have so many great memories with my friends. To my sister, Grace, you might have a way better car than me now, but just wait for when I am driving a Range Rover. TD JM JP AM PA

Over the Six Years i have attended WBMSHS, i have learned a lot of valuable lessons both in and out of the classroom. I have learned how to manage overbearing tasks and how to apply that to my life. Life gets overwhelming sometimes but we all have to remember that life's too short to not stop and smell the flowers. I would really like to just say thank you to the staff that has made school enjoyable for the past six years and work hard everyday. I'd also like to thank the senior class for being the people that they are, everyone is a wonderful human being and i hope that everyone in the class of 2019 lives long and fruitful lives.

"Bruh, we graduated just to go back to school again."

Finally graduating, thought this day would never come. I would say that transferring from BHS to WBHS was one of the best things that happened to me. This is only my second and last year and I feel like a part of this community. I always thought I would fight someone if they treated me differently based on my race and culture, but I found the majority of the kids here didn't, so I am very grateful for that. Grateful for cool friends like Ski, Noah, and Luke, not only y'all were my gym partners, you guys made sure that I could count on y'all for anything. Shout-out to my day one homie Mrs. Pontes, Ilana, Palmer, Nick, and THE MAYA JONES. Big shout-out to the 4x100/4x200 team.

"Life is a game! It all depends on how you play!"

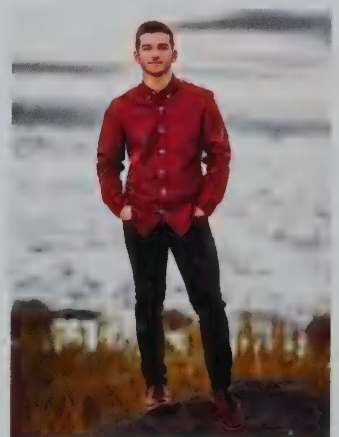

I am a kid that has lived and grew up in Massachusetts all my life. I have also grown up in all of the schools I went to, and growing up with the friends that I have known throughout the years. Class of 2019 was the best year of my life with senior privileges and what not. It is going to be tough to say goodbye to some of the people I have known in this school for the past 6 years I've been here. At the same time I'm excited to graduate, leave this place, and go on and live my life.

A Letter From the Editors

The end of high school is here--we made it! In the future, we will look back on the connections, decisions, and memories we were fortunate enough to make in WB. Everyone says that time flies by, but it's hard to believe them until these moments are through. It seems like just yesterday we were hiding in the corners of the cafeteria of the old school during our first middle school semi-formal. Who can forget when we were freshmen trying to navigate the new school on the first day? Or when we were shy first-graders making new friendships on the bus? We may look back and cringe or cry at our memories of this transformative time in our lives, but we should also remember to smile and laugh. Whatever we choose to do with these moments, whether they were good or bad, we will carry them throughout our lives.

A quick thank you to our senior staff for the energy, thought, and time put into making this yearbook special. Of course, an enormous thank you to Mrs. DeLorenzo and Mrs. DeSimone for all your time and patience, as well as the dinners. We would not have been able to put our memories into pictures and words without all your help!

Wherever the next chapter of life takes us, we can thank these years of our lives for shaping us into the people we are. Best of luck to the wonderful, funny, talented, bright Class of 2019!

Sincerely,
The 2019 Yearbook Staff

Congratulations Matty!!

How do you describe someone that is just a kind, loving, intelligent, thoughtful, and funny guy. Since you were young, you have always had a big heart. The best example we can think of was to describe a letter you wrote to Santa one year. You asked Santa for five things (mostly Patriots gear), but it was #4 that was very special. You asked for the families of Sandy Hook Elementary School to get better. In the last line of the letter, you added to Santa that you didn't care if you didn't get anything except for #4. Your Dad and I will treasure this letter forever. It sums up the kind of person you have been and continue to be. We have no doubt that you will go far in life and achieve all your dreams. We love you so much!

Mom, Dad, and Ashley

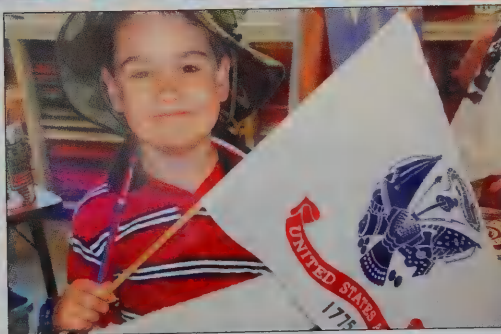

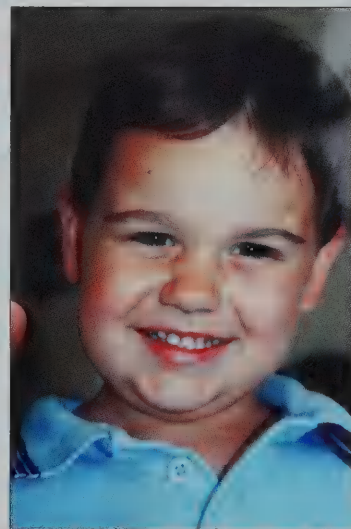

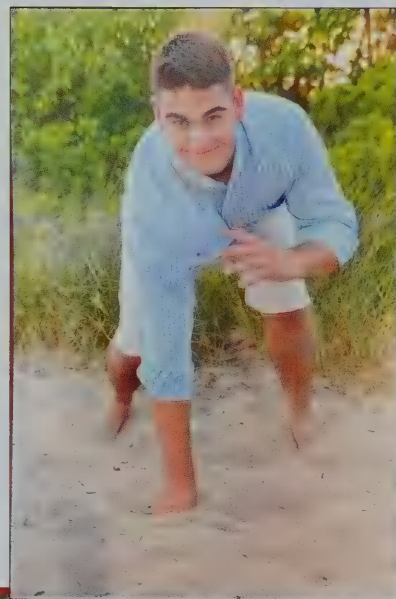

Aidan Michael Donahue

You have certainly reached FAR! We are so proud of your hard work and accomplishments the past four years. CONGRATS on your acceptance and commitment to study Political Science and play football at Norwich University, where you will pursue your dream to serve your country and become an officer in the United States Army. You are an amazing young man and we are lucky to be your family. Remember these important times and the wonderful people at WB who helped you become the man you are.

ALL OUR LOVE, DAD, MOM, SOPHIE
& DIXIE #GO CADETS!!

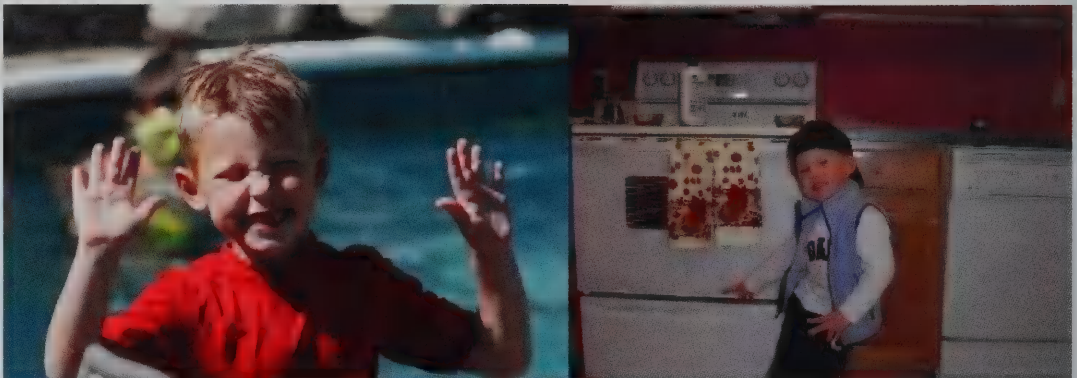

Dear CJ,

The first thirteen years of your education have flown by and here you are at one of the major milestones of your life. At the risk of getting nostalgic, we find ourselves reflecting on these years and their highs and lows. We marvel at the ease in which you have handled any of the challenges that have come your way. We are so proud of all the hard work you have put in to both your academic and athletic endeavors all the while learning that ability only gets you so far. On your own you have learned one of life's great lessons, "There is no substitute for hard work" Edison

It's been so much fun to watch you grow as a person. Your maturity, empathy and intellect are something to be very proud of. At the same time, I hope you can hold on to the goofy, silly and whimsical side of you the we really love, it will serve you well in life. We hope you can use these qualities to defend your happiness. As you get older you may realize that happiness requires defending from the responsibilities and business of adulthood. Being silly is the best defense from adulthood. "The pleasure of gratifying whim is very great. It is known only by those who are whimsical." James Boswell

Even before you start writing it, we can't wait to see how chapter 2 of your life turns out. Please know that we have so much confidence that you will handle whatever ever comes your way with your natural aplomb. Our love and admiration will always be here, and we wish you nothing but happiness and success.

Love Mom and Dad.

Kevin,
It has been a great joy to watch you grow from this little quite boy to the man you are today. You have gone from the sweet, shy, friendly child who just loved to play. To a little louder, boy that loved his sports. Whether you we are playing with your Brother, Sister or Friends you always liked a good time. You have always remained that gentle soul of the family. You have grown to a very respectful young man. We look forward to what you will become, we know whatever it is you will remain who you are. We all love you, Good Luck and Congratulations.
